

Embrie Tapia, LMFT

Embrie Tapia serves as Chief Programs Officer at Episcopal Community Services (ECS). She is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with extensive experience spanning clinical practice, administration, and executive leadership.

A versatile and innovative behavioral health executive, Embrie brings more than 14 years of experience leading behavioral healthcare programs and teams. She is recognized for her strategic, collaborative approach and her ability to drive organizational success through effective leadership and partnership.

With her forward-thinking vision, Embrie has led initiatives that strengthen workforce development, enhance service delivery, and expand access to high-quality behavioral healthcare. Her commitment to excellence and community impact makes her an instrumental leader in advancing care for individuals and families.